Penn Valley Incinerator Gets O. K.—Hearing Next Wednesday

Land owners' bill-of-equity protest against Lower Merion's incinerator on Woodbine avenue between Penn Valley and West Manayunk, were dismissed Tuesday by Judge William F. Dannehower at Norristown, in a 29-page decision. He held constitutional a zoning ordinance amendment giving authority to locate public buildings anywhere.

A previous bill of equity seeking to restrain the township from constructing the incinerator was dismissed by President Judge Harold G. Knight in January, and exceptions to his decision were thrown out by the court in May.

Yet another appeal has been filed with the State Supreme Court, and is expected to come up for argument before year's end.

As a result of Tuesday's okay, the township authorities will not wait for the Supreme Court's decision, and the last chance for property owners to protest will be at a public hearing next Wednesday night at the Township Building in Ardmore. This under terms of the zoning ordinance amendment adopted April 20, will be held to determine officially the site for the incinerator.

President Julius Ziegert contends that construction of the incinerator—and of a recreation park on the tract—will improve property in the vicinity and also act as a buffer against encroachment on the valuable residential area of Penn Valley of a different standard of building. The 30-acre tract bounded by Mary Waters Ford road, Jefferson street and Centennial road has been a common dump, but is in an "A" zone designed for the best type of residences.

Objectors to the incinerator—and to alleged smells and alleged eventual odoriferous garbage trucks pounding Penn Valley's roads to the section—include Percival Roberts, Jr., one of the largest land owners in the township. Their attorney is Aaron Swartz, Jr.

The Lower Merion commissioners have arranged for a Federal grant of $48,150, about half the incinerator's estimated cost.

Contract was awarded last October to H. R. Dickens Company, Philadelphia, at $94,885. Work will probably proceed immediately after next Wednesday's public hearing.

Travel

Impressions Were Rotary's Topic Tuesday.

Hervey C. Keim, Narberth, told the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Club that his chief impression of western transportation is its convenience, speed and comfort. And he praised hotel and tourist cabin accommodations tested in the course of his recent motor, train, bus and boat trip. He told of a road sign that might well be used here: "Railways don't have careless-driving accidents like motor highways—because the engineer doesn't try to hug the fireman."

Next week's speaker will be Charles H. Sykes, Cynwyd, the Evening Public Ledger's celebrated cartoonist.

Vice-president Engle Taylor told of program plans, some of which were detailed by Dr. Barclay Jones, international relations committee chairman, and James Carroll, vocational guidance.

Visitors were Frank B. McClatchy, 69th Street real estate developer, and J. L. Dolby, Ardmore advertising specialty man.

Autocar officials are optimistic about future business, because a decline in orders has halted, and sales are going merrily along for trucks to be used abroad as well as at home. Recent export orders include twenty trucks to Rumania, five to Holland and one to Russia.

The Pennsylvania Game Commission has issued a beautiful little booklet entitled, "Bird Life in Pennsylvania." It is well written and replete with illustrations. On account of the cost of publication, the Commission makes a nominal charge of 10 cents a copy—and the booklet is worth many times as much to bird lovers.

Recent Real Estate Sales Indicate Local Conditions Influence Buyers

Robert J. Nash commenting on the continuing volume of suburban sales in Lower Merion Township for both new and older properties attributes this in good part to a recognition by prospective home buyers of certain definite advantages real estate in this township enjoys. More and more the home-buyer is concerned with the local school situation, the tax rate, and a desire to definitely know that the residential future of the neighborhood is protected by adequate zoning. This Main Line section of our suburbs is able to answer satisfactorily on all three points.

Mr. Nash's suburban offices at Wynnewood and Narberth report the completion of fifteen recent sale transactions in this area, representing considerable diversification, including building sites and business property as well as suburban homes. These transactions totaling approximately $150,000, are as follows:

Sold for the Montgomery School to Joseph A. McDevitt, builder, who has completed settlement, a tract of about 4½ acres on McClenaghan's Mill road, Wynnewood land to be developed by Mr. McDevitt by the building of suburban homes to sell at around $25,000.

For J. Bruce Byall they have sold to Mrs. Laura Hare a lot of approximately 1 acre on Broad Acres road, Penn Valley. Mrs. Hare is building a suburban residence thereon for her own occupancy representing a total investment of approximately $20,000.

For Peter F. Carter, of New York, they have sold to Mr. and Mrs. John VanBuren Duer an additional area of about a quarter of an acre of land adjoining Mr. and Mrs. Duer's residence at the corner of Righter's Mill and Summit roads, Penn Valley, which property was sold to Mr. and Mrs. Duer by the same office, about a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jenkins have purchased the building site on the northerly side of Wynnedale avenue, west of Shady lane, Narberth, and are about to build a home thereon.

Residence sales include:

For The Pennsylvania Company, 338 Montgomery avenue, Wynnewood, held at $10,500. Lot, 2½-story Dutch Colonial type dwelling—completely renovated with two-car garage. Purchased by Mr. and Mrs. E. Rotan Sargent who were recently married.

For Mrs. Arnold W. Shaw the Colonial farmhouse type residence, 724 S. Bowman avenue, Merion, built about a year ago by Hamilton R. Vodge, builder. Purchased by Mr.

Sausser, Wynnewood; Frank H. Shafer, Ardmore; David W. Taylor, Ardmore; James F. Warren, Jr., Cynwyd; Harry C. Yarrow, 3d, Ardmore.

American Youth

Are Being Encouraged to Attend a New Camp.

It is the Keystone Camp, Indian-town Gap, sponsored by the American Legion's 40 and 8 to counter the inducements of the Communists' camps of which there are several in this area.

From it on Wednesday returned four Narberth youths, who had spent ten days of healthy fun and exercise in an American Legion atmosphere. Fred Kuebler, Narbrook Park, was sponsored by the Women's Community Club of Narberth. John Dorezo, 307 Hampden, was sent by the Italian-American Citizens' Club. The Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, sent William O'Sullivan, of 85 Windsor avenue, and his brother, Ridgely, was sent by his dad, Walter O'Sullivan.

Will Speak to Bible Institute

Among the speakers at the annual Labor Day Youth Rally at the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, September 2 to 5, will be the Rev. Archer E. Anderson, Th.D., pastor of the Narberth Presbyterian Church.

Around Our Town

The Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club participated Saturday at Willow Grove in the Fly and Plug Casting tournament of the Eastern Counties Fish and Game Associations. With 90 contestants, and 11 entries showing credit in retrieving seven fine prizes, the tournament was a success. It was the local club's first experience under fire, and R. B. Chain was Fly and Plug Casting Committee chairman.

Who should pop in at the General Wayne Inn Friday night but Leopold Stokowski. With him was someone believed to be his lawyer—not Garbo. Couple of fair fans struck up conversation with him while he was eating his ice cream and milk, so he up and departed.

Currently vacationing in Cuba, is Miss Frances McCabe, secretary of the Lower Merion School Board and sister of Ralph Dunne's secretary. . . . Our Town's secretary, Miss Leonora Mozzone, went to Cuba two weeks ago. . . . The society editor, Mrs. Ann Morgan Roberts, went yachting and so on last week.

The goings-on at 110 Forest avenue are occasioned by the going-in of Our Town's editor and his sister and the kids. What was Dr. Hartley's office before the place became K's Kupboard is now the Narberth office of Our Town and of the coming Town and Township.

"Let's All Get Behind the Club," Says Fred Walzer, Former Manager

Editor OUR TOWN:

I don't have to ask "Pop Davis" about the simon pure local talent or the crowds that attended the Narberth games twenty years ago. I played on the team in those days.

The compensation of the players then, only differed in the method used today, as we used to divide the surplus at the end of the year among the players, instead of paying each game.

We had good crowds then, but don't forget we only played one game a week, there being no Sunday or twilight ball in those days, and the many other attractions which are present today to attract fans elsewhere were not all in vogue when we played borough ball.

We didn't have to depend on the passing of the hat for the money to keep the club going, for even before we started the season we had a nice "nest egg" on hand, through the large contributions of many of the local citizens who wholeheartedly supported the club.

As league competition grew keener, we were obliged to bring from outside the borough, batteries, and the expense for them in most cases, exceeded the entire payroll for the present Narberth team. In fact, I can recall one year when the expense of the team was over $3000 and this money, too, or the most of it came from private sources and not from the "hat fund."

There was one thing in which we got 100 per cent support of the fans, and that was their loyalty through all seasons, for there was no ribbing or

Showing some of the fight that is traditional with Narberth ball teams, Jack Jeffries' employees virtually assured themselves first place rating in the Main Line League pennant marathon last week-end.

Manoa, said to be fighting internal disorder as well as league opponents, was soundly walloped, 9-3, Saturday when the Narberth big guns blasted Walter Azpell to all parts of the losers' field. Azpell is rated the circuit's outstanding hurler and recently returned from a trial with Easton in the Eastern Shore League.

The town's fans were more than elated with that victory, but as if to show them that Narberth has a truly great club, the boys proceeded to throttle Berwyn, 10-1 on the borough diamond a day later.

All of which means that the defending champs now boast 20 victories in 25 games and the only team with a chance to tie them is Gladwyne. It will be remembered that Gladwyne was handed the top rating for the playoffs last year, when it protested a game and it was added to the victory column. In the Shaughnessy System of playoffs the first four teams tangle in eliminations.

Narberth will meet Angora here tomorrow. The game originally was scheduled to take place Labor Day morning at Angora. Sunday Narberth will meet Ardmore away. Jeffries' boys will have the morning off on Labor Day and will play Coatesville here in the afternoon.

Bud Clancy toed the mound Saturday at Manoa and was nicked for ten scattered hits, while his teammates bunched twelve to give Azpell a headache.

Al Herrmann did the hurling and Claude Bailey some nifty shagging in the win over Berwyn. Al had

Narberth Apartments

Answering OUR TOWN's mention last week that M. Heivel is said to be offering $10 for the best name for the new Narberth Apartments, several readers have suggested names, including these:

"Narprice Court"—because the 100 some apartments are located at Narberth and Price avenues.

"Shandamere"—because the site is the old Shand property.

"Narborough Court" or "Narboro Court."

"Narwood Crest"—from "Narberth" and "Woodbine," which the building overlooks; and it's on the hill.

Room for Optimism

The United States contains 6 per cent of the world's area; 7 per cent of the world's population. It normally consumes:

48 per cent of the world's coffee,
53 per cent of the world's tin,
56 per cent of the world's rubber,
21 per cent of the world's sugar,
72 per cent of the world's silk,
36 per cent of the world's coal,
42 per cent of the world's pig iron,
47 per cent of the world's copper,
69 per cent of the world's crude petroleum.

The United States operates 60 per cent of the world's telephone and telegraph facilities; owns 80 per cent of the motorcars in use; operates 33 per cent of the rail roads. It produces:

70 per cent of the world's oil,
60 per cent of the world's wheat,
60 per cent of the world's cotton,
50 per cent of the world's cop per,
50 per cent of the world's pig iron,
40 per cent of the world's lead,
40 per cent of the world's coal.

The United States possesses almost eleven billions of dollars in gold, nearly one-half of the world's monetary metal. It has two-thirds of civilization's banking facilities. The purchasing power of the population is greater than that of the 500,000,000 people in Europe and much larger than that of the more than a billion Asiatic peoples.

Business Melodies

There was a man in our town,
And he was wondrous wise,
For when he marked his prices down
He then did advertise.

And when he saw his trade increase,
With all his might and main,
He gathered all the cash he could,
And advertised again.

And when he advertised again
His rivals loudly swore,
To see folks rush with might and main,
To patronize his store.

And while they sat in solitude,
And saw him custom win,

Expansion Planned For "School Night"

"School Night," Radnor Township's experiment in adult education which last winter caught the imagination of more than 500 residents of Wayne and twenty-two surrounding communities will shortly announce an enlarged program for the fall, according to Harry C. Creutzburg, chairman of the Board of Directors.

The program is to be inaugurated in the Radnor High School at Wayne with a series of three forum lectures by nationally known personalities. It will present a curriculum sufficiently diversified to attract an increasing number of grown-ups, whether in search of useful knowledge, the pursuit of a hobby or stimulating recreation.

"School Night is no longer an experiment," said Mr. Creutzburg. "This fall's program will be presented in response to a definite appeal on the part of those men and women who attended the school last winter and enjoyed the exhilaration of working with their hands, getting acquainted with subjects which had long intrigued them or being brought up to date in fields of activity which interested them in school or college."

"The new curriculum has been arranged and developed by T. Bayard Beatty and the Course of Studies Committee, on the basis of a questionnaire listing some sixty suggested courses on which men and women were asked to indicate preferences and wherever possible these preferences have been faithfully followed.

Last year eleven courses were offered, ranging from nearby Colonial history and public speaking to contract bridge, fishing and gardening. This year it is expected that more than twice as many courses, many limited to small groups to permit individual attention, will be made available.

"School Night" was instituted last winter as the result of a letter devoted to the subject of adult education and published in THE SUBURBAN. The widespread comment it occasioned left little doubt that a large number of residents of Wayne and

For the Banking Department, 223 Leantwyn lane, Narberth (corner of Meeting House lane), two-story semi-detached dwelling with basement garage. Purchased by Mrs. Paul K. Thomas.

The Nash office also reports the sale for the Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Company to Louis Ricklin, et al, of the three-story store and apartment building at 205 Haverford avenue, opposite the station at Narberth; lot 20 feet by 106 feet. This property adjoins other holdings of the Ricklin family here, and the building is now being modernized for business occupancy.

$1,000,000—WORTH HOMES

"William Penn Homes"—111 of them—are being built on 22 acres just east of Wynnewood Road School, on Argyle road. Builder B. Franklin Theobald had part of the Margaret Green and Charles C. Knox estates rezoned by L. M.'s Commissioners in June, so that single dwellings with 75-foot frontages might be erected, 16 of them by September 15. . . . To be sold for less than $10,000 apiece.

Buick Sales Show Gains

July retail deliveries of the Buick division of General Motors totaled 12,254 units, about a thousand cars over original estimates for the month, and represented a less than normal seasonal decline under June, according to W. F. Hufstader, general sales manager.

At the same time, the month wound up with a substantial increase in used car deliveries, 11,500 used cars being sold in the last ten days, compared with 9,900 in the previous period. Buick dealers in the United States sold 29,799 used cars during July, compared with 29,814 in June.

Pennsylvania liquid fuels (gas) tax collections for the fiscal year ending July 31 were $6,042,834.41, an increase of $469,673.62 (8.3 per cent) over the previous year.

Chevrolet July Sales 51,047

Chevrolet's new car and truck sales reached 51,047 units in July, exceeding the June total by 5,423 units or 11.9% of June sales, and setting an unusual sales record, by reversing the normal market trend. The announcement was made by W. E. Holler, general sales manager, who also reported the greatest used car stock reduction ever achieved by Chevrolet dealers in a single month.

the environs were interested, and the initial experiment followed. The availability of distinguished authorities on various subjects from the faculties of Philadelphia and Main Line institutions made possible streamlined courses in child psychology, pottery, current events and many other subjects which appealed to the business man and the housewife.

More persons were dependent upon State assistance grants or Federal work relief in Pennsylvania during June than in any other month since July, 1933, the Department of Public Assistance reported Tuesday. The State relief administration showed that during June 1,747,000 persons or approximately 17 per cent of the Commonwealth's population look to the combined State and Federal agencies for subsistence.

The school districts of Pennsylvania have established 828 special classes for the education of handicapped children, according to Dr. Lester K. Ade, superintendent of public instruction. These classes are provided to accommodate the special needs of children who are mentally retarded, partially blind, lacking in physical vigor, defective in hearing, and having unusual language difficulties.

Four-Hit Program Arranged For Narberth Current Week

Opening a parade of stellar attractions at the Narberth Theater is Lloyd C. Douglas' philosophical and beautiful "White Banners" in which Fay Bainter and Claude Rains share honors.

"Lord Jeff," with the screen's two leading juvenile actors, Freddie Bartholomew and Mickey Rooney, will be seen Monday and Tuesday.

"Fast Company," in which the stolen and counterfeit oldbook racket is exposed, will be shown Wednesday and Thursday. Melvyn Douglas has two leading ladies, Florence Rice and Claire Dodd, and both are most easy on the eyes. Lots of fun—and thrills.

Next week-end the rage of Paris, Danielle Darrieux, will be featured in "The Rage of Paris."

EGYPTIAN

"The Shopworn Angel," starring Margaret Sullivan and James Stewart, is playing at the Egyptian today, Saturday and Sunday. . . . The first draft of the World War soldiers as they march away in 1917. . . . Margaret Sullivan does her finest emotional acting, while James Stewart is seen as the bewildered young westerner who falls in love with this gold-digging show-girl.

Rolling along, singing a song, little Jane Withers has gone gypsy in a big way in her new comedy, "Rascals." Rochelle Hudson and Robert Wilcox are also featured. . . . Monday and Tuesday, September 5 and 6.

Here is the best of the super-deluxe Judge Hardy series, "Love Finds Andy Hardy," which comes to the Egyptian next Wednesday for a five-day run. The Hardy family includes Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Fay Holden and Cecilia Parker. Judy Garland enters this happy family circle to add the final touch with her singing.

Motor Vehicle Taxes

State motor vehicle tax collections hit a new all-time high in 1937 with a total of $1,156,543,000 the Automobile Club of Philadelphia was advised by National A.A.A. headquarters Monday. Collections in Pennsylvania amounted to $94,043,000 of which $38,332,000 was in the form of registration fees and $55,711,000 was in gasoline taxes. "For the U. S. as a whole," F. E. Ballantyne, general manager of the club said, "the State motor tax total was made up of $399,613,000 in registration fees and $756,930,000 in gasoline taxes.

Almost $5,000, enough to pay jobless benefits at average rates to fifty Pennsylvania workers, is piling up every day in the form of interest on Pennsylvania's Unemployment Trust Fund, Secretary of Labor and Industry Ralph M. Bashore reported Wednesday. The exact figure is $4,593.37, representing interest accruing daily on contributions by Pennsylvania employers to the State Unemployment Compensation Fund which are promptly deposited with the Federal Treasury at Washington, D. C.

Ada M. Beerstecher is Appointed Head Of Community Health & Civic Assn.

Frank C. Royer, president of the Community Health and Civic Association has announced the selection of Miss Ada M. Beerstecher, of Bozeman, Montana, and New York City, as the new executive secretary of the association. She will assume her duties about the middle of September. Her headquarters will be at 25 East Athens avenue, Ardmore.

Miss Beerstecher has been selected for the position because of her interest in housing and civic work, as well as in public health and nursing. She is a graduate of Montana State College and the Johns Hopkins School of Nursing in Baltimore. After graduation from the latter institution she became supervisor of the Pediatric Department of the Charles Miller Hospital in St. Paul, Minn. Following this she did private duty, after which she was employed for several years at the Henry Street Visiting Nurse Service in New York City. In 1927 she received her M.A. degree in Public Health Nursing from Teachers' College, Columbia University. After taking a special course in social and civic work at the Charity Organization Society in New York City, she returned to the Henry Street Visiting Nurse Service as assistant supervisor and now holds the position of supervisor.

The association is fortunate in securing the services of one who realizes that the civic activities of the organization, such as, Housing, Traffic and Regional Planning are important to the health and welfare of the people, and that an efficient public health program should include these, as well as a nursing service.

Miss Ada M. Beerstecher

Under the leadership of Miss Beerstecher, the association hopes to carry on the good work it has done in the past, and, in the future, an ever-increasing program of service to the community.

Frank Pino in timely fashion for the easy victory. Bailey made a pulse-stirring one-handed catch to his right, of a line drive off Chet Zercher's bat in the third. It came after Harvey Cook poked a single through second and had Chet's drive gone through it might have caused damage. Narberth's five runs in the third added to one in the first made it no contest, easy sailing when his mates slugged.

Crematory Service Available

A modernly equipped crematory and chapel has just been completed by this long-established cemetery. The building was designed by Frank R. Watson, well-known church architect. This equipment was added in response to requests. The chapel makes possible a dignified service away from wind and rain and glaring sun, in harmonious surroundings with soft music. The cost is very reasonable.
